Freshmen, Get Ready!

Crystal Garcia, senior, year…then the winds
Come Friday, the home -
Indian tribe and raises a will cooperate. “Every Freshman, do you re-
McMurry Homecoming 2012:
remembers last year's
is a little different.
thing have changed, as the pride-filled football game begins. Now, as you may have noticed, many things have changed, as McMurry’s homecoming
is a little different.
Crystal Garcia, senior,
remembers last year’s homecoming and is hoping this year the weather
is a little different.
“Tipi, “ she said, “We were our tipis. “ The weather
being lit, destroyed tipis, kept the bonfire from
and even rained out the football game last year.

Not So Traditional Tipis
Salome Felise Block

One homecoming, in the mid 90’s, after tipis
had been raised around
the McMurry theatre is rehearsing is less than two weeks
time outs, “ Crystal said.
the rain…there was no
till 8 o’ clock, thanks to

When rain delayed last year’s homecoming game, the freshman didn’t give up beating the drum. The drum was moved to the Hunt PE center and the beat went on.

The drum actually stops beating at 2:00pm, kick off, when the McMurry versus Langston football game begins. “They say,
the drum beat is messed
up we will lose the football game” Crystal said.
Fresno, it is your job
to keep the beat going and bring good luck to the War Hawk football team. And don’t forget to enjoy yourself! There are so many options: the band
corner which Blazes
bright yardays—a tips is ging up in flames!

After coronation of the Chief and Princess saw, the musical every morning, the bonfire Friday night, and of course
support your volleyball
and football teams Sat-day.

Forbidden Planet; band is on the field, and volleyball on the court. Now for the band.

The cold wind blows by the fresh cane they are about to cut. Ever since that night in the mid 90’s, the girls cut cane for their wikiup. It takes two days to actually construct the frame of the wikiup
by soaking the yellow branches in water to straighten the walls.
then filling the walls in with cane. This long process results in one of the most interesting nights on

Members of Pi Delta Phi cut cane for their wikiup at Tipi Village.

This year’s homecoming experience, Pi
and XO are unique dwellings created by the women of Pi Delta Phi and the men of XO.

McMurry Homecoming 2012:
Freshmen, Get Ready!

One homecoming, in the mid 90’s, after tipis
had been raised around
the McMurry theatre is rehears-
ing is less than two weeks
time outs, “ Crystal said.
the rain…there was no
till 8 o’ clock, thanks to

When rain delayed last year’s homecoming game, the freshman didn’t give up beating the drum. The drum was moved to the Hunt PE center and the beat went on.
ATTENTION GRADUATES! CAREER EVENTS

On-Campus Interviews with PrimeSource Building Products
Friday, Oct. 19th, 9-10:30am

Contact Career Services for information or an interview time. Full-time Manager Trainee positions for a December graduate or recent graduates.

Careers in the Foreign Service meeting
Tuesday October 23rd, 12:20-noon, Cooke 207

Information session with the US Department of State for all those interested in Foreign Service careers. Contact Career Services for more information.

Students meet Aflac representatives about career opportunities
Tuesday, Oct. 23rd, 9-1:30pm

Aflac representatives will talk about the exciting careers at Aflac and answer any questions you may have.

Graduate and Professional School Fair
Tuesday, November 1st, 11-1:30pm - 2284/Heart_Walk/ National_Web_ Site.htm. On SATURDAY, Oct. 20th, 9-2:00pm, this event is also participated in the Applications Program- ming contest.

Nathan Lostch, a se- nior Business Computer Information Systems major and Computer Science minor, and Kim Martinez, a sophomore Business Marketing major, participated as a team and earned 2nd place in the Microsoft Office Solutions contest.

All proceeds go to the Wounded Warrior Project.

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins
If you would like to purchase one or more of the Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at

Jeremie Border Memorial Pins, you may do so online at http://mcm.edu/news/what/univ_relations/ tickets/event_list.htm. All proceeds go to the Wounded Warrior Project.

Thank you for remembering Jeremie and supporting a great cause!
The McMurry Art Department is currently displaying the exhibit Dia de los Muertos in the Gypsy Tea Gallery on Hunt Street. Dia de los Muertos, Spanish for “day of the dead,” is a traditional Mexican celebration for remembering deceased family members and friends. The idea for this exhibit came from the Art Education class’s tradition of making a Day of the Dead altar piece, typically in memory of a late celebrity. This year, the class director is Steve Irwin, “The Crocodile Hunter.” Callie Ann Sterling, Gallery Director, says that the exhibit is “a celebration of life and death, to celebrate those we love who are no longer with us.” The exhibit, which began on October 8th, will run through November 1st. November 1st is the actual Day of the Dead in Mexico and is an equivalent to the Christian holy day All Saints Day. The exhibit is a diverse celebration of those who have passed. Students have chosen to express their interpretations of honoring the dead through paintings, ceramics, pastels, and sculptures, said Sterling. In addition to student displays, Professor Brad Oliver is participating in the show, as well as alumni of the McMurry Art Department Miles Mayfield and Jennifer Parks.

Analyzing the Debates
On October 3, 2012 one of the biggest days this election season occurred. Gov. Mitt Romney and President Barack Obama took the stage to debate each other. The stakes were really high for this debate, which could determine the future leader of the country. There were questions asked by the moderator regarding who would be best to handle the economy, jobs, social security, and Medicare. During the ninety minutes the candidates had a chance to tell the American people what their vision was for the country and how they would fix the problems that faces our country today. Also, during the debate Mitt Romney had a chance to question the President on his record of high debt, spending problems, the unemployment rate, and many other topics as well. On October 11, 2012 the two vice presidential candidates, current VP Joe Biden and Congressman Paul Ryan, Mitt Romney’s VP candidate, came to Danville, Kentucky and tried to sway independent voters to vote for their bosses. The candidates were asked several questions over topics including Libya, social security, Medicare, and taxes. The center point of the debate was Libya, where the current VP was asked about security in Libya that killed the U.S. ambassador there, as well as the Navy SEALs who were there to protect the ambassador. During the debate Paul Ryan pointed out that if they were in office the security that was asked for would have been granted. The current vice president blamed the intelligence community for not giving them the information they needed to know. So, in both debates the American voters have two different choices as November approaches.

Early Voting
If you are a Taylor County resident and registered to vote, you can vote early October 29th from 8:00-10:00 a.m. The voting booth will be set up in the in the Windjammers lounge.
Meet the New Neighbors

When McMurry University’s athletics teams take to the fields of competition beginning in the fall of 2012, you may see quite a few new faces. We’re not just talking about new War Hawk athletes, but rather those on the opposite side of the fields and courts. Officially in its first full year competing as an NCAA Division II school, McMurry also is one of the newest members of the Heartland Conference. And it has left its mark – literally. The conference’s northernmost member is Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, and ranges 782 miles south to Texas A&M-International in Laredo. UT-Permian Basin is the Heartland’s most western location, while the University of Arkansas-Ft. Smith has the Heartland Conference’s eastern outpost.

Just as diverse is the make-up of the Heartland Conference’s members. The Heartland is comprised of six private and four public institutions. Below is a snapshot look at each member:

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS-FORT SMITH
Location: Fort Smith, Arkansas
Enrollment: 5,545
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

DALLAS BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
Location: Dallas, Texas
Enrollment: 2,746
Nickname: Patriots
Type: Private (Baptist)

NEWMAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Wichita, Kansas
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

OKLAHOMA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Edmond, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Eagles
Type: Private (Church of Christ)

OKLAHOMA PANHANDLE STATE UNIVERSITY
Location: Goodwell, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 1,242
Nickname: Aggies
Type: Public

ST. EDWARD’S UNIVERSITY
Location: Austin, Texas
Enrollment: 3,895
Nickname: Hilltoppers
Type: Private (Catholic)

ST. MARY’S UNIVERSITY
Location: San Antonio, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Rattlers
Type: Private (Catholic)

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-INTERNATIONAL
Location: Laredo, Texas
Enrollment: 7,000
Nickname: Dustdevils
Type: Public

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS-PERMIAN BASIN
Location: Odessa, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Falcons
Type: Public

McMurry also is one of the ten-member Heartland Conference’s northernmost member, Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, and ranges 782 miles south to Texas A&M-International in Laredo. UT-Permian Basin is the Heartland’s most western location, while the University of Arkansas-Ft. Smith has the Heartland Conference’s eastern outpost.

Mumme is located very close to the geographic center of the 10-member Heartland Conference map. The Conference’s northernmost member is Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, and ranges 782 miles south to Texas A&M-International in Laredo. UT-Permian Basin in Odessa is the Heartland’s most western location, while the University of Arkansas-Ft. Smith has the Heartland Conference’s eastern outpost.

Just as diverse is the make-up of the Heartland Conference’s members. The Heartland is comprised of six private and four public institutions. Below is a snapshot look at each member:

McMurry Coach Hal Mumme’s Air Raid Offense Changes College Football

McMurry Coach Hal Mumme’s Air Raid Offense

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2012

McMurry Coach Hal Mumme’s Air Raid Offense Changes College Football

Meet the New Neighbors

When McMurry University’s athletics teams take to the fields of competition beginning in the fall of 2012, you may see quite a few new faces. We’re not just talking about new War Hawk athletes, but rather those on the opposite side of the fields and courts. Officially in its first full year competing as an NCAA Division II school, McMurry also is one of the newest members of the Heartland Conference. And it has left its mark – literally. The conference’s northernmost member is Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, and ranges 782 miles south to Texas A&M-International in Laredo. UT-Permian Basin is the Heartland’s most western location, while the University of Arkansas-Ft. Smith has the Heartland Conference’s eastern outpost.

Just as diverse is the make-up of the Heartland Conference’s members. The Heartland is comprised of six private and four public institutions. Below is a snapshot look at each member:

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS-FORT SMITH
Location: Fort Smith, Arkansas
Enrollment: 5,545
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

DALLAS BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
Location: Dallas, Texas
Enrollment: 2,746
Nickname: Patriots
Type: Private (Baptist)

NEWMAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Wichita, Kansas
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

OKLAHOMA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Edmond, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Eagles
Type: Private (Church of Christ)

OKLAHOMA PANHANDLE STATE UNIVERSITY
Location: Goodwell, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 1,242
Nickname: Aggies
Type: Public

ST. EDWARD’S UNIVERSITY
Location: Austin, Texas
Enrollment: 3,895
Nickname: Hilltoppers
Type: Private (Catholic)

ST. MARY’S UNIVERSITY
Location: San Antonio, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Rattlers
Type: Private (Catholic)

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-INTERNATIONAL
Location: Laredo, Texas
Enrollment: 7,000
Nickname: Dustdevils
Type: Public

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS-PERMIAN BASIN
Location: Odessa, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Falcons
Type: Public

McMurry also is one of the ten-member Heartland Conference’s northernmost member, Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, and ranges 782 miles south to Texas A&M-International in Laredo. UT-Permian Basin is the Heartland’s most western location, while the University of Arkansas-Ft. Smith has the Heartland Conference’s eastern outpost.

Just as diverse is the make-up of the Heartland Conference’s members. The Heartland is comprised of six private and four public institutions. Below is a snapshot look at each member:

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS-FORT SMITH
Location: Fort Smith, Arkansas
Enrollment: 5,545
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

DALLAS BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
Location: Dallas, Texas
Enrollment: 2,746
Nickname: Patriots
Type: Private (Baptist)

NEWMAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Wichita, Kansas
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

OKLAHOMA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Edmond, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Eagles
Type: Private (Church of Christ)

OKLAHOMA PANHANDLE STATE UNIVERSITY
Location: Goodwell, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 1,242
Nickname: Aggies
Type: Public

ST. EDWARD’S UNIVERSITY
Location: Austin, Texas
Enrollment: 3,895
Nickname: Hilltoppers
Type: Private (Catholic)

ST. MARY’S UNIVERSITY
Location: San Antonio, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Rattlers
Type: Private (Catholic)

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-INTERNATIONAL
Location: Laredo, Texas
Enrollment: 7,000
Nickname: Dustdevils
Type: Public

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS-PERMIAN BASIN
Location: Odessa, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Falcons
Type: Public

McMurry also is one of the ten-member Heartland Conference’s northernmost member, Newman University in Wichita, Kansas, and ranges 782 miles south to Texas A&M-International in Laredo. UT-Permian Basin is the Heartland’s most western location, while the University of Arkansas-Ft. Smith has the Heartland Conference’s eastern outpost.

Just as diverse is the make-up of the Heartland Conference’s members. The Heartland is comprised of six private and four public institutions. Below is a snapshot look at each member:

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS-FORT SMITH
Location: Fort Smith, Arkansas
Enrollment: 5,545
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

DALLAS BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
Location: Dallas, Texas
Enrollment: 2,746
Nickname: Patriots
Type: Private (Baptist)

NEWMAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Wichita, Kansas
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Jets
Type: Private (Catholic)

OKLAHOMA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
Location: Edmond, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 2,000
Nickname: Eagles
Type: Private (Church of Christ)

OKLAHOMA PANHANDLE STATE UNIVERSITY
Location: Goodwell, Oklahoma
Enrollment: 1,242
Nickname: Aggies
Type: Public

ST. EDWARD’S UNIVERSITY
Location: Austin, Texas
Enrollment: 3,895
Nickname: Hilltoppers
Type: Private (Catholic)

ST. MARY’S UNIVERSITY
Location: San Antonio, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Rattlers
Type: Private (Catholic)

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-INTERNATIONAL
Location: Laredo, Texas
Enrollment: 7,000
Nickname: Dustdevils
Type: Public

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS-PERMIAN BASIN
Location: Odessa, Texas
Enrollment: 4,000
Nickname: Falcons
Type: Public